

Minerva Center for the study of Population Fragmentation

Call for submissions to the MCPF Conference Travel Award

The MCPF center is excited to announce the availability of a conference travel award for students affiliated with our center. This award is designed to support and encourage the participation of our students in academic conferences, providing an opportunity to engage with the global research community and share their work on population fragmentation.

Award details:

Amount awarded: €1,000

Eligibility: Applicants must be graduate students or postdocs currently supervised by a PI member of the MCPF (they do not have to be MCPF fellows).

Purpose: The award is intended to cover travel, accommodation, and registration expenses related to attending an academic conference.

Application:

1. The name of the conference to be attended, including a link to the conference website.
2. The abstract that has been submitted to the conference.
3. The submitting student's CV.

Selection Criteria:

1. Alignment of the presented work with the center's goals.
2. The student's track record.
3. Potential impact of conference attendance on the applicant's academic and professional development.

Application Deadline: April 15th, 2025

How to Apply: Please submit your application materials to mcpopfrag@gmail.com, in a single PDF file.
